Township Register

49 YEARS OLD — FRIDAY, MARCH 12, 1937 — No. 11

AROUND the TOWNSHIP

By Henry Alderman

Father Frances McCarthy has erected a "thermometer" at the entrance of Corpus Christi church which shows the efforts of parishioners at reducing the church debt. As the debt grows less, the "mercury" descends. It is dfificult not to make some joke at this point about it's being a cold day when the debt is finally paid off.

In spite of the fact that the Boy Scout drive for funds has been hindered by the development of emergency flood campaigns, the record thus far shows a heavier contribution and more people contributing in the southern end of the county.

Nearly twice as many people have given funds this year as did last.

This in itself is a testimonial of the effective work of W. T. Lindsay and others who have built up scouting during the past year.

The troops in Washington township, and especially in Niles, have shown a great improvement, both in membership and accomplishment, during the past year. Local people cannot do less than to subscribe to the Scout fund.

Someone left what purported to be an obituary notice in the Register office this week. Although it was headed "Prominent Pioneer Passes" there was nothing in the article to show when he died, where he died, or in fact, that h had died at all. It mentioned that he had been been living with a son and daughter-in-law but it did not say where and did not list a son among the surviving relatives. We left the notice out of the paper, not becaues we want to offend anyone but because we must have reasonably complete information before we can print it.

So efficacious is the advertising power of the Township Register, that the very morning we gave publicity to the fact that Joe Vivieros was in the market for new shoes, his feet stopped hurting.

* * *

The nuisances committed by tramps in Niles are growing worse daily. It is getting to the point where the town needs an officer who can devote his full time to keeping them on the move through town. The way they congregate near the freight depot and eye respectable women in the shopping district is disgraceful.

We went over to Ed Rose's garage in Centerville the other day to present Miss Janice Silva, circulation contest winner, with her new automobile.

The General Motors sitdown strike broke just as the contest closed, and Miss Silva has been waiting ever since to get her new buggy.

She says she hasn't noticed any great increase in the number of boy riends since obtaining the car but that's no matter, because we understand she is well supplied with those pests as it is.

Owing to increased circulation, additional news coverage and greater advertising volume, the Township Register will be distributed by mail regularly on Friday mornings hereafter.

This change is in keeping with the best practice of community newspapers throughout the country. It enables the Register to give a better resume of the week's local news happenings.

Advertising copy mst be in by Tuesday noon.

Rural free delivery subscribers throughout Washington Township will get their papers on the regular Friday delivery.

ROM OUR SCHOOLS

THE SWALLOW THAT NEVER FORGETS

By Kiyoko Tate
Sixth Grade, Centerville School

While I was feeding the cats one afternoon I saw that one of them had a bird in his mouth. I tried to get it out of his mouth, but I couldn't because he held on tightly. I finally saved the injured bird and fixed its broken wings.

Soon she was well, so I made a nest for her on a bush. She couldn't fly so I had to feed her. After a month she was well enough to fly I named her "Mazie" because she reminded me of Mazie in her brown jacket. Winter was coming so Mazie flew away.

In the spring Mazie came back. Mazie surprised me by having four egs. She hatched four baby birds, and soon they went to the south. Mazie kept returning until she had 16 birds with her. Mazie has just come back from the south. I think that humans are not as smart as swallows because swallows never forget.

WHAT I DID FOR A PIGEON

By Ciro Orlando
Fifth Grade, Centerville School

While I was playing out in a field a pigeon flew down near me. I thought it wanted to land but it was hurt. It fell to the ground. When I picked it up I saw that it had been shot in the leg. I tok it home, fixed his leg, and put him into a rabbit pen for three days. I left the rabbit pen door open sa he could go free. I was surprisedto see him in the pen the next morning. I tried it again thinking he was going to be there again. He fooled me. I hunted for him about an hour but gave up. Some times I wonder what happened to him.

RECIPES

Cheese has become one of the most important of main dish standbys, an ever-present aid to the family budget, and a worthy ally for virtually any meal during the Lenten season.

One of the most decorative, economical and inviting or wholemeal Lenten dishes has as its basis a spinach and cheese ring. This colorful delicacy comes to the table with two other familiar allies in fancy dress. As a centerpiece for the ring, try a heaping mound of whipped potatoes, butter and faintly browned. Surround the ring with a scalloping of hot buttered beets. Here is a meal whose dietetic virtues entitled it to be described as wholesome, but whose appearance is so handsome as to make it appear the most frivolous of party dishes.

SPINACH-CHEESE RING

3 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
1-2 lb. American cheese, grated
3 eggs, beaten
1 cup finely chopped cooked spinach
1 and 1-2 cups soft bread crumbs

DAINTY CUP CAKES

2 eggs, separated
2-3 cup sweetened condensed milk.
3-4 cup flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1-2 teaspoon lemon extract.

Beat egg yolks with rotary egg beater; add sweetened condensed milk and continue beating until well blended. Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, and sift again. Add gradually to first mixture and stir until well blended. All lemon extract. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into small greased cup cake tins and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) ayout 15 minutes. With a sharp knife slice off the top of each cake as thinly as possible. Hollow out center and will with Orange Cream Filling. Replace top carefully. Rust top of cake with confectioner's (4X) sugar or cover with Sunshine Frosting. Makes 2 dozen cup cakes. (

ORANGE CREAM FILLING

2-3 cup sweetened-condensed milk
3 tablespoons lemon juice
1 tablespoon orange juice
2 tablespoons grated orange rind
1 egg white, stiffly beaten.

Blend sweetened condensed milk, fruit juices and orange rind. Stir until mixture thickens. Fold in stiffly beater egg white. Chill.

SCRAMBLED EGGS MUSHROOM SOUP

Blend thoroughly one hot cup of undiluted mushroom soup with 1-4 cup of warm water. Add to four eggs, beaten until they are light. Scramble eggs in butter as usual. Serve with crisp slices of bacon. This will make four servings.

NELL FARRINGTON MYERS

Browsing about through the shops this week I came upon the attractive display of Shirley Temple Frocks at THE ECONOMY DRESS SHOP, Hayward.

Now is the time old Mother Nature has washed her face and donned a fresh green frock to celebrate the Easter Season. And so all doting Mothers of Washington Township will want to see a crisp green, apricot, pink or blue frock modeled after Shirley Temple's own wardrobe adorning her adorable offspring.

These Shirley Temple dresses are true copies modeled after the ones she wore in "Stowaway" and other recent hits, and a picture of Shirley herself comes with each dress, which will delight the hearts of the youngsters.

They are attractive in styles, colors, and come in sizes 1 to 14, priced at the modest sum of $1.95.

It's farther between filling stations in the Ford "60"

THE 60-horsepower Ford V-8 engine was first developed for Europe, where fuel costs are high. Two years' usage there proved its unusual economy.

When the "60" came to this country this year, the Ford Motor Company made no mileage claims—waited for facts, written on American roads by American drivers.

Now Ford "60" owners are reporting averages of 22 to 27 miles on a gallon of gasoline. That makes it the most economical Ford car ever built!

Best of all, the Ford "60" is just as big and roomy—just as handsome, sturdy and safe—as the famous 85-horsepower Ford V-8. And it sells at the lowest Ford price in years.

If you want a big car for a small budget—a car you can drive with pride and profit—see the thrifty "60" soon!

After much discussion it was decided to have a luncheon at a special meeting on April 1, to install officers for the coming year.

Mrs. Franklin appointed the following committee to make final arrangements for the luncheon, as follows; Mrs. R. Bendel, Mrs. H. Braun, Mrs. J. D. Galvin. Mrs. R. Cozzi, Historian gave the following report of the past year's work.

A play written and directed by Mrs. Bendel was presented by all past presidents of the Niles P.-T. A. This was a history of the P.-T. A.

CHANCE FOR REAL SERVICE

A piece appeared in one of the big city papers a few days ago quoting an officer of a subsidiary of Union Carbide Co. to the effect that his firm was seeking a likely spot on which to erect a factory to serve the Pacific coast. Electric furnace units similar to the sort now installed in Newark, are to be part of the plant.

It is this sort of items that township service clubs should spot and take action on.

A member of the Niles junior chamber saw this one and that group is seeing what can be done to interest the union carbide people is locating here.

A number of local folk have been worrying and rightly os, about the effect of the new highway on inter-community business; but the routing of highways is not going to make or break any towns that have plenty of payrolls.

It is perfectly possible to bring such payrolls to Washinpton township in increasing numbers through the use of the right sort of organization.

This newspaper believed that there is room for a township wide service club dedicated to the sole end of bringing new businesses here.

Such a club would have to spend some money.

It should subscribe to clipping bureaus which would provide it with news of manufacturers wishing to build Paciic coast plants.

It should follow up these leads intelligently by means of carefully written correspondence and research work.

Big firms looking for places to locate will not be satisfied with generalities about the climate, transportation and good schools. They will want to know freight rates, costs trans-shipment, accessibility of raw materials, definite prices for land.

To gather a set of such statistics for any one firm takes time and costs money. A township organization should provide this service.

Probably $500 or $600 per year would pay for these things; and if such a sum were spent each year for 10 years before attracting a major payroll here, the money would be well spent.

An organization spending such a sum colld easily consist of 50 local business men paying $10 in yearly dues. Many men here could afford that sum and all would profit by it.

—o—

The president told the voters during his campaign that he would seek to put his reforms into effect within the definition of the Constitution.

We cannot recall now that he said definitely he would do it by amendment.

If he did not definitely so state, it should, in all fairness to him be pointed out that his present plan of packing the supreme court, reprehensible as it may be, is clearly a constitutional move.

The sad fact about it all, is that his plan exposes a weakness in the Constitution which it is too late to rectify.

SPRING-TIME IN NILES CANYON

—o—

Today my weary soul has wings
To soar from mediocre things;
Yonder the regal poppies sweep
In splendor, and I long to creep
Along the paths of solitude—
Far from the human, milling brood.
How good it is to laugh and sing,
And commune with Nature in the spring,
I'll gather flowers bright and bold—
And wade knee-deep in blue and gold.
Perhaps an eagle in his flight
Escorts me—there's a moon tonight!

WHAT THE BAY BRIDGE WILL MEAN TO THIS COMMUNITY

By J. R. Silveria
Vice Pres. Irvington Jr. Chamber of Commerce

Well, this is what I think it will mean,-that by 1975 we will be the world's leading metropolitan center. Already the population of California is outgrowing that of any other state. And did you know that this section—San Francisco, Oakland and the Bay area, is growing 3 to 1 as rapidly as Greater New York?

But it's not only 1975 I'm talking about. It's right now and tomorrow and next day. The new bridge is already sending people down our way. And why not? From every viewpoint this is the ideal place to live.

Ideal for city workers. There are many people whose jobs are in the city but who don't care to spend all their time in fog or wind, not to mention the dirt and noise that all big cities have. These people know the beauties of our orchards and hills. They know the healthfulness of our climate; that the air is clear and dry; that in winter there is no ice, no heavy frost; that in summer the thermometer rarely nears 10 and nights are cool. They have always known it but could never take advantage of it.

Even if this were paradise, the distance was so great and the time on the road so long that it was impossible to live here and work in the city. But now it doesn't take as long to drive from one of our Bay towns to San Francisco as to drive across the city.

Ideal for ranchers. Every month in the year is planting time for some far mor orchard crop and every month is harvest time for some other. Both our soil and our climate are suited to the raising of fruits, vegetables, berries and grapes, and our broad, level fields are perfect for dairying and stock raising. How will the new bridge help the ranchers? Why, it used to take an hour and a half to get the produce to the city market. But now? A good truck will go from Irvington to San Francisco in half an hour.

Ideal for industry. Our transportation facilities, equable climate, abundance of water and low power cost will bring new factories here within the next few years.

We are expecting this and are getting ready right now. The Junior Chamber of Commerce of Irvington is so sure of what the bridge and the World's Fair are going to mean to our community that we are preparing already. We're just a year old, as an organization, but we're in a hurry, and here are some of the things we've done, built a sidewalk, ¾ mile ong, leading to our grammar school organized a student patrol to regulate traffic; eliminated the danger at the Warm Springs road intersection. There had been many costly accidents there, but since ou stop sign was erected six months ago there have been none.

And to sum it all up—if any one asks me if the Bay Bridge will make any difference to this section I answer, "It will just make us the hub of the universe, that's all."

THE OLD SHINN NURSERY

By Mrs. Julia Shinn

(An interview with Mrs. Sladek)

Back in 1856 Grandfather Shinn, Mr. Jo Shinn's father, was living in Texas. He and his wife had moved from Wisconsin to Tennessee, coming down the Mississippi by boat, then on into Texas by covered wagon.

His brother-in-law lived in San Francisco and constantly wrote of this beautiful land of California. His letters told of the healthy climate, the wonderful opportunities in this new country and urged him to bring his wife and two children and settle here.

They decided to do so and sailed from Galveston, crossed the isthmus and took boat again for San Francisco. They sent their furniture around the horn and, as usual, much of it was lost.

A Mr. Sims owned a land grant, a quarter section, and had built a house on what is now the Shinn place. This house was unique for it was made of timber from two schooners. In those days sailors were constantly abandoning ship in San Francisco and striking out for the gold fields. Mr. Sims used the lumber from two of these to build his home. This house is still standing. Mr. and Mrs. Jo Shinn, Jr. are living in it.

Grandfather Shinn bought the ranch and the house and lived there for twenty years, until the big house was built in 1876.

In 1870 he decided to turn part of the ranch into a nursery and ordered trees and flowering shrubs, not only from this country but from Japan and China.

We still have some of the catalogs sent from Japan. They are not in book form but are beautiful, hand painted pictures of the flowers and shrubs advertised, all done in such exquisite colors that they deserve to be framed. Their bill of lading is interesting, too, a scroll, several yards long, written in Japanese characters.

When an unusual or beautiful tree arrived Grandfather Shinn always planted one or two on his own place. And so today we have a cypress from the Louisiana swamps, two Areca palms, an enormous Chinese camphor tree and a Japanese magnolia.

The birds all love our trees but the most interesting thing we have on the place is a tree full of herons. These night herons, as soon as it is dark, go back to the creek to fish. But they spend their days high in the top of our big oak.

THE RIGHT AND WRONG OF LAMPS AND LIGHT!

RIGHT . . . At a distance of 1½ feet from this lamp a minimum of 20 units of light are procured. This quantity of light scientists say is needed for reading fine print.

WRONG . . . A decorative lamp of low height and narrow shade. At a distance of 1½ feet—the correct seeing distance—only a few units of light are produced. Such a lamp causes eyestrain.

Without cost to you a P.G.&E. sales-service representative will gladly check your home lighting with a Sight Meter

NOW you can have a lamp designed for eye comfort as well as ornamental and decorative beauty. It is the lamp designed by the Illuminating Engineering Society to meet the need of Better Light for Better Sight. Due to remarkable improvements in design, this lamp is unlike the many ordinary lamps you may now have in your home or have seen for sale on the bargain counters.

Here are four good reasons why these radically different lamps give you more light for your money and protect the eyesight of every child, youth or adult who uses them for reading, study or sewing.

It gives several times as much light as the ordinary lamp because the shade is wide at the bottom and open at the top and gives light a chance to spread over a wider area.

It gives soft, diffused light without glare because of its inside opal glass diffuser and reflector.

It gives light from correct height because the standard is high enough to allow light to spread where you need it.

It gives beauty and decoration because more symmetrical proportions between shade and standard are possible.

Protect your eyes and the eyes of your family with one of these new lamps. They are made in either floor or table models. Prices are very moderate and within the range of everyone.

Still wondering how so many of his friends remembered the date of his 88th birthday, Feb. 25. John Hedley, Golden Gate lodge, San Francisco has been busy ever since writing letters expressing his thanks. He expects to finish the job by the end of another week. Hedley, one of the popular members of the home and the violinist of the home orchestra may well be proud of his title "Dean of Iron foundries in the San Francisco-Oakland" area. He is in fine health.

"KING OF KINGS" TO BE SHOWN

The famous motion picture of "King of Kings" will be shown in the First Congregational Church Friday, March 12th at 7:30 p. m., according to Rev. Richard C. Day, Pastor.

"The King of Kings" is an elaborate and reverent attempt to use the motion picture as a means of telling the greatest story in the world.

The film drama opens with the brilliant scene in the house of Mary of Magdala, and here the elaboration of luxury is used to mark the contrast with the Magdalene's shame and repentance when she finds herself face to face with Christ. She has gone to Him to win back her lover, Judas the betrayer. She remains to become the most faithful and devoted of His followers.

YOUNG PEOPLE PICK HOME

Those who took these boxes were Marjorie Pimentel, Betty Denton, Genevieve Andrade, Elizabeth Lindsay, June Farrington, Robert Zwissig and Doremus Scudder.

Sunday night, March 7, Doremus Scudder led a very interesting and well planned discussion on a Christian Life Topic "Christians Believe that God is the Father of all Mankind".

Mr. Day made an announcement concerning the picture "King of Kings" Cecil De Mille's production which is to be shown March 12. There is no charge for admission and the public is cordially invited to attend.

The double bill for the local theatre on Friday and Saturday include "Join the Marines" with Paul Kelly, June Travis and Reginald Denny and "Land Beyond the Law" with Dick Foran.

Bing Crosby's latest picture, "Pennies from Heaven" will be shown on Sunday and Monday. Madge Evans and Edith Fellows assist the Mighty Bing in this film. "King of Hocky" with Dick Purcell is the companion picture.

The famous American lyric soprano, Gladys Swarthout, Metropolitan Opera diva, is cast as the granddaughter of Strauss, old waltz king in "Champagne Waltz" to be shown Wednesday and Thursday of next week. Fred MacMurray appears in the role of a jazz king.

TOWNSHIP'S FARM NEWS

In Our Township Garden

By Paul Dougherty

California Conservation Week

This is California Conservation Week proclaimed by our Governor and promoted by many agencies. The ground work for the present great expansion in conservation was laid by Theodore Roosevelt about 30 years ago. Many private and government agencies are busy today working towards the conserving of our natural resources, but without general intelligent interest and support from the great mass of the citizens—they can hope to accomplish but little.

In our Township a fine piece of conservation has been done by the various organizations of sportsmen in protecting and increasing the supply of wild birds and animals as well as fish which may be regarded as game. Many old timers around here tell us that there are just as many quail in the hills as there were years ago and that the number of deer have definitely increased. In fact, the men who know about those ihtngs estimate the California deer herd to number about 400,000 today—or one deer for every 15 persons in the state. Locally, the Chinese pheasant has been established through game sanctuaries and in spite of a brief open season, is gaining in numbers, even in our most intensively farmed areas. The work which has been done in wild life preservation is an inspiration to all types of conservation.

We Should Save Our Good Hill Lands

We are inclined to believe that the losses which we are suffering in our thermal cultivated hills are greater and more permanent than any of us realize. On next Tuesday evening, March 16, David N. Morgan of the Soil Conservation Service will speak before the Farm Center at the High School. His discussion of the hill washing problem will be illustrated by pictures taken in our own hills this year. Morgan will tell us just what we need to do that we may pass on this heritage of warm hall land undiminished to the young farmers who are growing up in the Township now. The public is invited.

A Leader We Miss

For a number of years Niles community, under the enthusiastic and devoted leadership of Earle Townsend, held a wild flower show each spring at about this time of year. This Show united the people of this Township in intelligent appreciation and conservation of our natural flower gardens in the hills and fields about us. Hundreds found a new world of interest and beauty through his untiring and unselfish work. Spring will never carpet our hillsides with its gay tapestry of bloom but what we will think of him and miss him.

Blossom Time

This is the week when our fruit trees make our Township a veritable fairyland of blossoms. We have on every hand the pale pinkish white of the apricot (workaday orchards in gay holiday attire) and then in hundreds of gardens the brilliant flowering peach (the fine ladies of leisure in the fruit family) The scattering almonds for a few brief days gayly announce their presence and then fade into obscurity for another year. A charming feature of the almond family has been its ability to migrate up the hills and canyon walls surrounding our cultivated orchards, probably planted by busy squirrels and birds. brushy hillsides or scattered spar- These trees are now acclimated on sely over open pasture. Each tree has its own ideas as to pinkness and whiteness. The runaways from the staid ranks of the orchard have gone wild too in the flavor of the pit. Many disappointed adventurer in the hills has found the bitterness beyond the power of any human palate to accept.

A Voice from the Past

Joe Mattos, in leveling a piece of ground on the north edge of the Township, dug up a beautiful little sterling silver childs spoon. On the spoon was engraved, "Salterton Kolangsu, July 4, 1896". We kind of wonder how the world is treating Salterton and if he would like to eat with his beautiful little silver spoon once again?

A Riddle

Believe it or not, we wrote the Township Garden for last week. It went out in the regular mail, but after that we do not know what happened. If we thought any body missed it we might put an ad in the Lost and Found Column of the Township Register!
